More about MENAFiS...

The Middle East and North Africa Forum in Scotland (MENAFiS) was formed in June 2011 to promote dialogue and understanding of the region. The issue of an independent Palestinian state is a special interest which cuts across the region and the Forum seeks to track and understand the changeable situation in the peace process and the response of UN countries in the process of establishing a Palestinian state. The group aims to promote understanding of this complex region and does not seek to support one particular point of view, but rather wishes to create opportunities to learn and allow exchange of views, opinion and fact. In general MENAFiS supports the principle of self determinations of Nations and the fostering of peace and democracy.

All are welcome – event is free of charge
