

Commonwealth Heads of Government conference on Energy, Equity and Development 22nd July 2014

Venue: Barony Hall, Glasgow

Draft Programme

- 1015 Registration, tea and coffee
- 1045 Welcome from conference organizers and introduction to the Chairpersons for the day
Professor Sir Ian Diamond (University of Aberdeen)
- 1050 Opening address: Ms Fiona Hyslop, Scottish Cabinet Secretary for Culture and External Affairs

Identifying the issues

- 1100 United Nations Sustainable Energy for All Initiative - Speaker from the SE4ALL Initiative, Vienna
- 1120 Corporate sector response to ethical energy – Ian Williamson, Vice-Principal Commercial,
Senergy
- 1135 Scale of energy inequity in Ghana: Yakubu Abdul-Salam
- 1140 Indices to measure equity and development and introduction to workshops to promote energy equity and development at country level
- 1150 Four workshops introduced by country representatives from sub-Saharan Africa

1250 Lunch and networking

1400 Introduction by Chair for the afternoon and feedback from working groups - Facilitators

Case studies on Energy equity

1415 Lessons learned from Nigeria: Sir Mike Okiro

1435 Energy inequity in Scotland: David Sigsworth, Chair of the Scottish Fuel Poverty Forum and Scottish Environmental Protection Agency

1455 Gender inequity: Speaker from the Mary Robinson Foundation

1515 Scotland's work on SE4All in Malawi - Penny George, Senior Policy Adviser, Scottish Government

1530 Tea break

1545 Panel discussion with Q & A with previous four speakers

1630 Closing address: TBC

1645 Summing up by Chair and closing remarks

1700 Wine reception

Participants: 150 maximum

Primary target is: Commonwealth and other interested Heads of State; High Commissioners; academia; energy corporate sector; and development partners