

Communicating Europe to Australia

What does 'Europe' mean to Australia and how is it being presented?

Practitioners and academics will discuss political, cultural, media and educational interactions between Europe and Australia, as well as Europe's visibility in Australia.

Panel 1 – Politics, culture and education

Mr Miguel Gómez de Aranda

Consul-General of Spain in Melbourne

Mr Torsten Schulz

Goethe-Institut Australien - German Language Advisor

Ms Melissa Conley Tyler

Australian Institute of International Affairs – National Executive Director

Mr Frank Merlino

Victorian School of Languages - Principal

Prof Pascaline Winand

Monash European & EU Centre - Director

Panel 2 – The media

Mr Mark Baker

The Age – Editor-at-Large

Mr Matthew Drummond

The Australian Financial Review – European Correspondent

Mr Christopher Gogos

Neos Kosmos – Managing Director

Dr Eva Polonska

Monash University - Lecturer

Dr Patrick Kimunguyi

Monash University - Lecturer

All welcome – no charge

Date: Wednesday, 14 November 2012

Time: 4:00-6:00pm Panel 1
6:00-6:30pm Refreshments
6:30-8:00pm Panel 2

Venue: Monash University Conference Centre
Level 7, Seminar Room 1
30 Collins Street, Melbourne

RSVP: europescentre@monash.edu
by Monday 12 November for catering purposes

The MEEUC is a joint undertaking by the European Commission of the European Union and Monash University

