

Global health symposium

Thursday 3 September 2015

Why attend

Gain insight and learning from current initiatives in delivering health care in low income environments and have the opportunity to ask what we can do to facilitate this work further.

Who should attend

- Trainee and Consultant physicians and surgeons
- Public Health Professionals
- Nurses

Minister for Europe and International Development, Humza Yousaf MSP, will be in attendance

Programme

09:00 Registration, tea and coffee

09:20 Welcome and introduction

Session 1: Global health | Chair to be confirmed

09:30 The Lancet Commission on Global Surgery – next steps
Mr Andrew Leather, Consultant Surgeon, Kings College London

10:10 Global health – NHS benefits
Professor Ged Byrne, Consultant Surgeon and Director of Education and Quality, Health Education England

10:30 Rural Surgical Training: from East Africa to Scotland
Mr Gordon McFarlane, Consultant Surgeon, NHS Shetland

10:50 Refreshment break

Session 2: Capacity strengthening | Chair Dr Adrian Stanley, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Glasgow Royal Infirmary

11:10 Teaching surgical skills in Africa
Mr Bob Lane, President, International Federation of Surgical Colleges

11:30 RCSI and COSECSA – Building a Surgical Training College
Mr Declan J Magee, President Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland

11:50 GlobalSurg: Research capacity building in resource poor settings
Mr Ewen Harrison, Senior Lecturer in General Surgery and Consultant Surgeon, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

12:10 Capacity Strengthening in Global Surgery, Disaster relief
Mr Stephen Mannion, Consultant Orthopaedic and Trauma Surgeon, Blackpool, Fylde and Wyre Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust, Head of the Department of Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine, St George's University of London, Orthopaedic Advisor, the Overseas Disability Charity (CBM)

12:30 Panel discussion

13:00 Lunch

Session 3: Malawi | Chair Mr Stephen Mannion, Consultant Orthopaedic and Trauma Surgeon, Blackpool, Fylde and Wyre Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

13:45 Strengthening Health Partnerships in Malawi – Opportunities in Training, Research and Clinical Service
Professor Nyengo Mkawindere, Professor in Orthopaedics and Head of Surgery, College of Medicine, University of Malawi and Queen Elizabeth Central Hospital, Blantyre Malawi

14:00 Capacity strengthening in Malawi
Professor Chris Lavy, Professor of Orthopaedic and Tropical Surgery, Nuffield Department of Orthopaedics, Rheumatology and Musculoskeletal Sciences, University of Oxford, Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre, Oxford

14:30 Endoscopy training in Malawi
Dr Adrian Stanley, Consultant Gastroenterologist, Glasgow Royal Infirmary

14:50 A Volunteers Observations of General Surgical Care in a Malawian Hospital
Mr Trevor Crofts, Retired General Surgeon, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh

15:10 The MTI experience
Dr Lughano Kalongolera, Fellow in Surgery, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
Liam Meehan, Coordinator for International Affairs and Revalidation, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow

15:25 NHS volunteering in Malawi
David Hope-Jones, Principal Officer of the Scotland Malawi Partnership

Session 4: Workshop | Chair Mr Mike McKirdy, Vice President (Surgical), Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow

15:35 Refreshment break

15:45 Workshop: What can we do?
All participants

16:30 Close and next steps
Mr Mike McKirdy, Vice President (Surgical), Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow; Professor Frank Dunn CBE, President, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow