

Report On International Day of Education

Bandar Khamir (IRAN) / UNESCO Learning City

کمیسیون ملی
یونسکو - ایران
Iranian National Commission for UNESCO

January 24
2022

Bandar Khamir as a member of UNESCO Global Network of Learning Cities, celebrated International Day of Education with the vast variety of activities including exhibition, workshops, performances and public events. All these activities have done by the volunteers and high participation of local people as the past.

It can be considered as the most important celebration of International Day of Education in Iran with presence of significant speakers and guests such as secretary general of Iranian national commission for UNESCO and his companions, president of Hormozgan University as the largest and most prestigious university in Hormozgan province, deputy governor of the province, county governor and mayor.

Here is an overview on what happened during the Festival that lasted a week and for the first time, it was named as Cultural Week of Bandar Khamir.

Cultural Exhibition and Festival

Includes museum, traditional music, local food, tourist destinations introduction, display of NGOs achievements, paintings and local arts.

Book unveiling

This book has been written about Bandar Khamir's Culture and History with the title: "Bandar Khamir, on the path of History"

workshops

Sustainable Livelihood based on Wetland Ecosystem Services

workshops

Introducing the wetland base culture of Bandar Khamir

Public Events

Cleaning the most popular beach of the city with volunteers

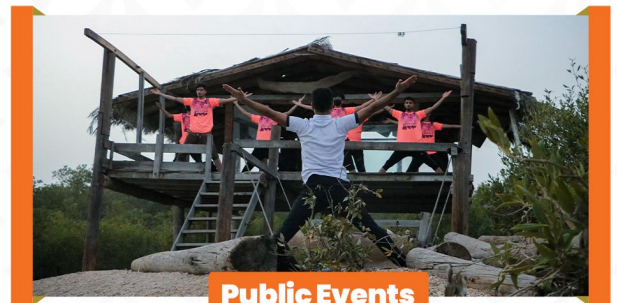

Public Events

Painting event with environmental topics for children

Public Events

Fun public sports

Public Events

Yoga in wetland Event

CEPA Center Visit

CEPA Center is the heart of the management and direction of volunteers and their activities. The festival has been driven by CEPA Center.

Opening the Cultural Center

One of the best and standard hall for theater, concerts and conferences in Bandar khamir was put into operation.

International Day of Education Hall Program

— The most important speakers were : —

Secretary general of Iranian commission for UNESCO

President of Hormozgan University

Deputy Governor of the province

County
Governor

Mayor of Bandar Khamir

Performances :

Young Oud Players from Oud Center Academy of Bandar Khamir

Child students of old and active Islamic Center of the City

Acknowledgments :

- Appreciation of the most effective and inspiring teacher and researcher of the city
- Appreciation of education activists

Show Clips :

Annual Report of Bandar Khamir Learning City

Short Clip about beauties of Bandar Khamir

Report on presence of Mayor of Bandar Khamir in the fifth international conference of Learning Cities in Korea

