Smart Learning Cities Forum

Purpose: To explore how smart cities strategies can include a learning community/city framework

Audience: Learning community practitioners, policy makers in local and state government, ACE educators and academics

Date and Time: Wednesday 26 February 2020, 3-5 pm.

Venue: The Green Room, Storey Hall, 16.07.07 (room 16, level 7, building 7), 342-344 Swanston Street, Melbourne.

Programme:

3:00 pm
WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Dr Leone Wheeler - Hon. Chair of ALCN

3:10 pm
KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Professor Mike Osborne, Professor of Adult and Lifelong Learning at the University of Glasgow

Are smart cities learning?

3:45 pm
PANEL RESPONSE TO KEYNOTE ADDRESS

- Dr Adam Mowlam, Manager, Smart City Office, and Diane Tabbagh, Coordinator Learning Community, Libraries and Community Learning, Wyndham City Council

- Matthew Wilson, Manager Community Planning, Sally Edwards, Coordinator Community Activation and Learning, Melton City Council

- Jenny Macaffer, Chief Executive Officer, Adult Learning Australia

Question to be addressed: What are the opportunities and challenges of smart cities strategies in the context of your learning community?

Panel Chair: Jose Roberto Guevara, Associate Professor in International Development, School of Global, Urban and Social Studies, RMIT University

4:20 pm
CONCLUSIONS AND WHERE TO NEXT

Dr Leone Wheeler, Hon Chair of ALCN

REGISTER NOW

RSVP by 16th February 2020
For further information, please email alcn@bigpond.com or phone Jenny on (03) 9689 8623