

YOU ARE INVITED TO

UKRAINE'S PATH TO THE EU & NATO CHALLENGES & PERSPECTIVES

Presentation by Ivanna Klymush-Tsintsadze

Ukrainian Vice Prime Minister for European and Euro-Atlantic Integration

WEDNESDAY 24 OCTOBER

12pm - 2pm

RMIT, CITY CAMPUS

Council Chamber

Building 1, Level 2R

124 La Trobe Street

Melbourne VIC 3000

FREE EVENT

RSVP

<https://ukrainian-eu-nato-path.eventbrite.com.au>

The EU Centre at RMIT, Monash University's Mykola Zerov Centre for Ukrainian Studies, and the Australian Federation of Ukrainian Organisations are pleased to invite you to the public presentation by the Ukrainian Vice Prime Minister for European and Euro-Atlantic Integration, Ivanna Klymush-Tsintsadze.

Ivanna Klymush-Tsintsadze will discuss Ukraine's path to the EU and NATO.

We are pleased to announce that Deputy Vice Chancellor for Global Development Professor Andrew MacIntyre will also welcome Mrs Klymush-Tsintsadze to RMIT.

Ivanna Klymush-Tsintsadze was appointed to the post of Vice Prime Minister for European and Euro-Atlantic integration in April of 2016.

Ivanna is a former Member of the Ukrainian Parliament, served as a First Deputy Chairperson of Foreign Affairs Committee, and led Ukraine's Parliamentary Delegation to NATO PA.

Ivanna headed the Yalta European Strategy - an independent international network promoting the development of fair, democratic and prosperous Ukraine and supporting reforms necessary for Ukraine's European integration.

Ivanna has also worked as Director of the international charity organisation "Open Ukraine Foundation", Radio BBC Ukrainian Service correspondent in the USA and in the Caucasus, Acting Director of the East-West Institute's Kyiv Center, Project Manager and later Head of the Department of International Relations at the Ukrainian Center for Independent Political Research (UCIPR).

Ivanna is co-editor of the book Black Sea Region: Cooperation and Security Building (2003).

MONASH University